current worship series: Christ In You

The Ongoing Work of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor 2:6-16; Gal 3:14, 4:6)—The message of the gospel doesn't end when a person makes a decision to accept the sacrifice of Jesus and become part of God's family. In fact, that is just the beginning. Paul speaks in a number of settings about the gift that God gives his sons and daughters, the gift of his Spirit that takes up residence within them. The Spirit of God is a helper to all Christ-followers in a number of areas, including conviction of wrong doing, teaching in wisdom, strength for the callings of God, and power to serve and live beyond one's own ability. The ongoing work of the Spirit is the continuous sanctifying, the growing into Christlikeness, of each person who has experienced the work of Jesus at their moment of initial salvation.
