Shear Shave Shine: Styles for the Soul

A Little More Off The Sides, Please (Exod 32:11-14; Josh 7:7-9; Judg 21:3; Ps 4, 12:1-5, 13, 22:1-5, 74:1-4)—One of the greatest aspects to living life with God is the access we have to communicate with him. Throughout the Bible, prayer is exemplified in many different forms, all of which illustrate the possibility that God's people have to speak to and hear from their loving Father. Over the next five weeks, we'll consider five different nuances of communication with God. First up: Protest! Does that seem strange to you? And yet, throughout the Psalms the people of God rise up and call on their God to action in areas where they see injustice or evil having a place in their world. God always listens, sometimes is moved to action, and sometimes allows consequences to play out. But his people are always invited to bring their protests before him.

Silver Cliff Ranch: Save the Date—Students, save the date for Silver Cliff next summer, June 22-29, 2019! Sign up at ubc.org/quicklinks.

Faith@Home--The Five Love Languages—Pick up your wallet cards in your WBS class or at The Porch. These wallet cards will allow you to carry around a reminder of what love languages to speak to your loved ones. In addition to supplementary resources, 5LL guides, profiles, bracelets, fridge magnets and the photo booth are still available at The Porch if you missed a week.
