Stuart Rothberg is one of the Teaching Pastors at Sagemont Church. He and his wife, Sue, met while she was a Meteorologist with the U.S. Air Force in Germany and he was a missionary with the Navigators.

They have three boys, Tim, Grant, and Ben, and the most wonderful daughters-in-love in the world, Crystal, Carrie, and Rachel.

Stuart is from a Jewish background and has served with Jews for Jesus in seeking to take the Gospel to Jewish people.

After graduating from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, Stuart has served in a variety of church roles and as Chaplain in the Army Reserves. His passion and privilege is helping people to see the wonders of God's Word and to live by what it says.
